Mr. Snyder,

Are you the webmaster for "nonewwiptax.com"? The site continues to incorrectly report the estimated annual cost of a benefit unit to Rural Water Company customers. I personally spoke with you regarding the error in our numbers after we first presented them back on January 23, 2012. As I explained, we double counted the debt service on RWC portion of Bond resulting in a number that was twice as high as our conservatively high estimate should be.

If this is you website, we'd appreciate it if the correction could be made.

Respectfully,

-----
